A CITY reader says he saw the comet plainly yesterday morning at three o'clock, being called up at that hour on some domestic errand. It was low down in the northeastern horizon, as if lying at the foot of Second street, and as bright as Venus, with an ample display of tail.-Macon (Ga.)

The following dispatch from Little the Chicago Tribune:

F. G. Whipple, attorney for the defaulting Assistant Postmaster Kerrott, arrived from Hempstead County to-day and had an interview with his disclosed in due time. It is said Kerrott still insists that he can ruin Dorsey and other prominent men in this city, and will do it unless he is spared.

This "Administration Republican," who was "solid for Garfield" originally-this "anti-Dorsey Republican," who has been found to be a thief, and who has been visited "in the State prison" by his attorney-ought to be shipped to Gibson at once. It is for his kind that the gang asked for more time. He is full of secrets, and that, too, of whatever variety Cook, Gibson & Co. may most stand in need of. "Disclosed in due time!" Well, what are they here for if not to tell such creatures what evidence they want. The Government must have time to get returns from the State prisons.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL MACVEAGH'S home organ, the Philadelphia Times, of yesterday, has a menacing article against the President and Secretary of State, in which the latter are discussed freely in respect to rumors set affoat against them by the MacVeagh wing of the Cabinet. The Times warns the President and his Premier very solemnly against abandoning the star-route prosecution. As there are no prosecutions, and as Assistant District Attorney Cook has pompously announced in court that the conspirators against Brady and others have no case ready for the grand jury, it would be rather difficult for the non-existent cases to be abandoned. "It is not derogatory to the other members of the Cabinet," says MacVeagh, or his organ, "to say that Attorney-General MacVeagh and Postmaster-General James are the most respected members of the Administration by the large mass of people." This is as false as it is insolent. It is without a parallel for the President himself to be thus lectured by an organ of one of his Cabinet. If only the President could have given to the New York situation a little of the forbearance practiced toward these two detective-ministers of his what a happy family the Republican party would be.

THE President does not intend to return General Grant's call of Saturday. If General Grant had called earlier and in a personal manner it is said the President intended to waive the rule provided for Presidents in such matters and make a return cait himself. As it is he considers that General Grant called in a most formal fashion, among the last arrivals at the public reception, and so the President will go away in the morning without during the week that they have lived but a stone's throw apart.-Long Branch special to the Post.
